

May 31, 2018

Notice of Extension of the Deadlines for the 17th International Conference of the JEPA

Dear Members of the JEPA and Participants in the former international conference of the JEPA,

The Japan Economic Policy Association will hold the 17th International Conference on October 27 (Saturday) – 28 (Sunday), at Shonan Fujisawa Campus of Keio University, Fujisawa city, Kanagawa Prefecture, Japan, with the support of Keio University.

An excursion to historical sites in Kamakura and Shonan will be held on October 26 (Friday).

The main theme of this year is:

Do Our Best Days Lie Ahead? : Stable Growth or Unstable Decline

You are cordially invited to participate in the conference. You are also welcome to attend the meetings as a presenter, a discussant, or a session chair. Your partner is also welcome to audit Plenary sessions at free. All inquiries must be sent to the following address:

jepa2018#jepa-hq.com (# should be replaced by @)

For the detail, please see the following website:

<http://jepa.jp/jepa2018/jepa2018index.html>

Responding to many requests from potential participants, the program committee decided that the deadline for abstract submission is extended to July 31 and the deadline for full paper submission is extended to August 31.

Participation registration, payment of participation fee, partner participation, accommodation application, excursion application, will be accepted online on our website Registration page. In order to ensure the smooth operation of the international conference, please register by the early registration deadline in late October. After the deadline, you will be able to make registration and payment at the reception desk on the day of the conference at the post-deadline rate.

Early registration fee will be charged for those who have accepted discussants or chairpersons even after the registration deadline.

*Master course students as well as Ph.D. students are qualified to participate in the conference and need to show the ID card at the reception desk for student discount.

Sincerely yours,

President of the JEPA: Takashi YANAGAWA

Chair of the International Committee: Akira MAEDA

Vice Chair of the International Committee: Naotsugu HAYASHI

Chair of the Program Committee: Mitsuhiko SATAKE

Secretary General of the Program Committee: Daisaku GOTO

Chair of the Managing Committee: Taro OZAWA